Clinch, is an owner of performing fleas. Pleasetry. When she married rising political star Duff Cooper, they became the golden couple who knew everyone who was anyone; they sat at the very heart of British public life. Though she is perhaps little remembered these days except as the mother of writer and historian John Julius Norwich, Lady Diana Cooper was one of the towering figures in society life between the wars and for much of the period before her death in Born in at Belvoir Castle in Leicestershire, Lady Diana Olivia Winifred Maud Manners was raised as the youngest daughter of the Duke of Rutland her real father was the Hon Harry Cust, a womanising politician and grew up to be a famous society beauty, her creamy skin and cornflower eyes so legendary that by the time she married Duff Cooper at St Margaret's, Westminster, inmounted police had to be brought in to control the crowds. There's also a lot of 'name-dropping', of course. A group of London women, evacuated from London to Katherine Asquith's place in Somerset, are appalled to find there is no Lyons Corner House in the vicinity, and soon set out to walk to Frome where there are "streets and shops".
