Nancy English on March 29, at pm said:. Great post as always! From watching Him, we learn what it looks like to serve with excitement, create. Be yourself around them and acknowledge when you make mistakes. Thank you Art for sharing and may you have continued success! Luke 9 tells us that the harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are still . How can we become number one by being a slave to someone else? Therefore, Luke 10 will serve as a large part of the biblical context for this book.
