Edward Cullen. Watch our trailer of trailers. The preface indicates that Bella, once again, faces death, only this time in the eyes of her beloved.

Nothing is more final, especially for immortals. I'm disgusted at the statement that women who cannot have children are less than female, with Breaking Dawn implication that the only point of being a woman is reproduction. Our editors recommend. Published novels.

Apparently they also can only have sex if they're remarried. And, oh yes, there can Bella never consider Edward's worry for her?
